Supply chain disruption – Corona virus

Place, March 26th 2020

Corona Virus – Possible supply chain disruptions

Dear Customer,

Due to the very serious situation with regards to the Corona virus COVID-19 development, Primo is continuously investigating the potential negative impact on our supply chain, together with our suppliers.

At the present moment, COVID-19 has no impact on our supply chain.

We will immediately contact you if we will find any reason to believe that our supplies might have any impact on your business.
